"There is something especially powerful about the sanctification of Evensong. The day is over. The night is at hand. Just as each day is a kind of whole life of its own ("this is the day which the Lord hath made; let us rejoice and be glad in it!"), so each evening signifies a little death: 'Now I lay me down to sleep. I pray the Lord my soul to keep. If I should die before I wake, I pray the Lord my soul to take.'" (from Sermon by Fr. Andrew C. Mead, St. Thomas Church, New York, October 30, 2011)
